2024 Colour of the Year

0482 • Powdered Pool

As we look ahead to 2024, reconnecting with nature and creating meaningful moments with loved ones is what's most important. To reflect this, our homes will become a sanctuary where we feel grounded and can build memories to cherish forever. With this in mind, we introduce our colour of the year, Powdered Pool 0482, a soft, intense shade of blue designed to make your home a place of healing and soothing.

To inspire you, we've designed three striking palettes featuring our 2024 trend colours that highlight the versatility of our colour of the year. With Powdered Pool the centre of each, it's time to discover your own vision for the future and enrich your home with one precious hue.
